

Notebook Covers

The following pages contain a choice of designs for your students to color and add to the front of their notebook as a cover.

This is a good opportunity to demonstrate how much (or just how little!) glue is needed for the item to stick to the page.

Too much glue causes soggy and wrinkled pages, so show students how to use tiny dots spread over the reverse surface of their item.

