

Stackable Pockets

The templates provided on the next pages are intended to be used as stackable pockets in the notebook. However, they work well as standalone pockets too.

Use them to store extra pieces between sessions if the notebook page is not complete.

If you intend to stack them, take care to glue the highest pocket down first. Then, simply 'stack' the other pockets one on top of the other down the page.

