

Make a set of cards to use in your classroom by laminating and securing them with a book ring.

The divider cards provided can be used to separate each section.

Or you may choose to store the cards in your student's notebook using the pocket found on the following page.

