

Social Skills

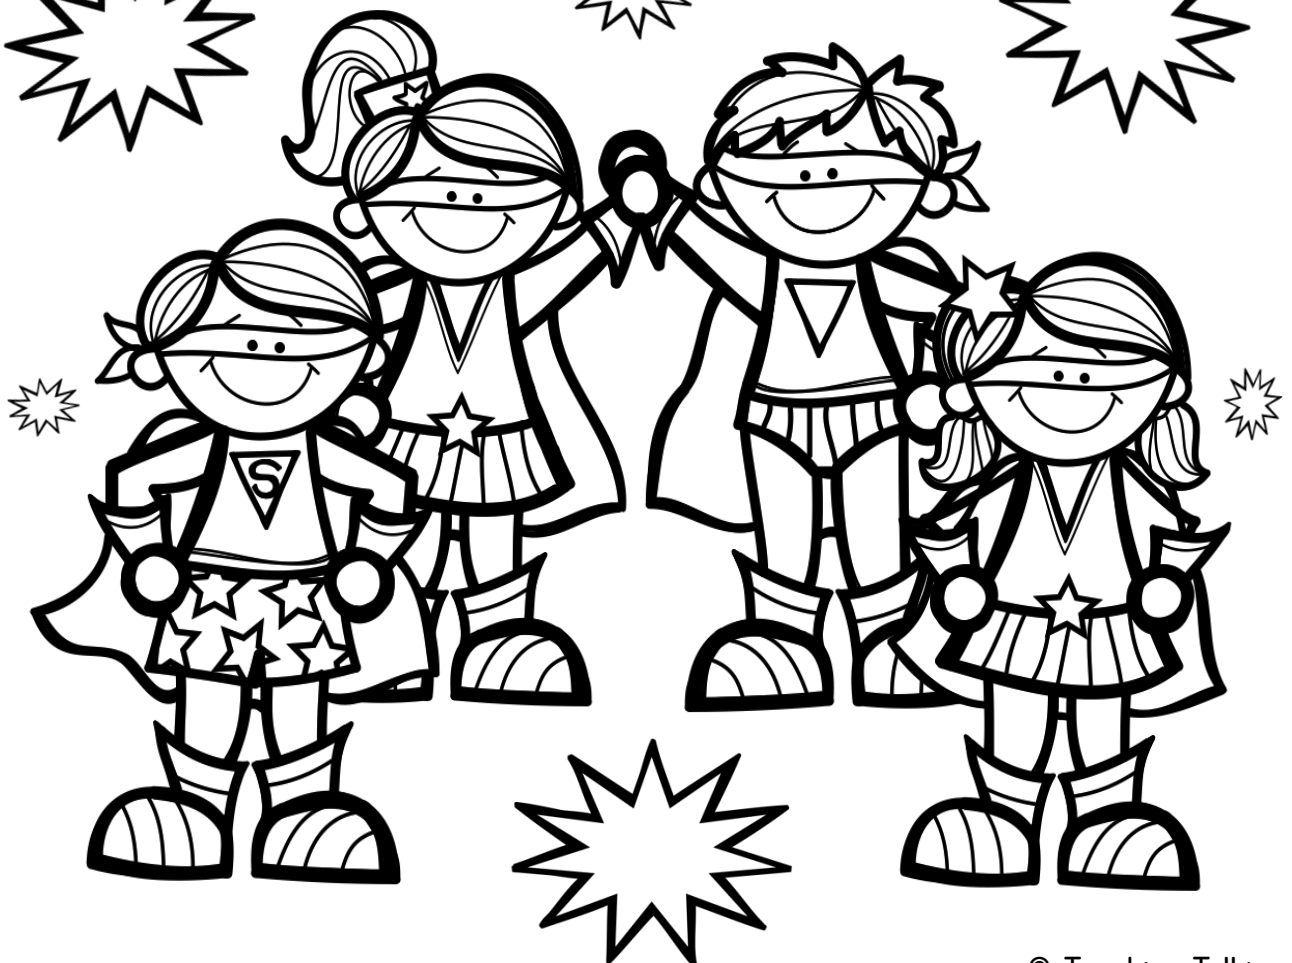

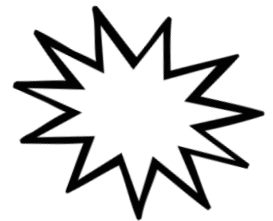

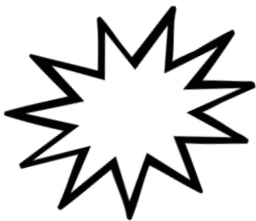

What Should They Do?

On the following page you will find 3 social scenarios.

Read them together with a partner and discuss what the children should do.

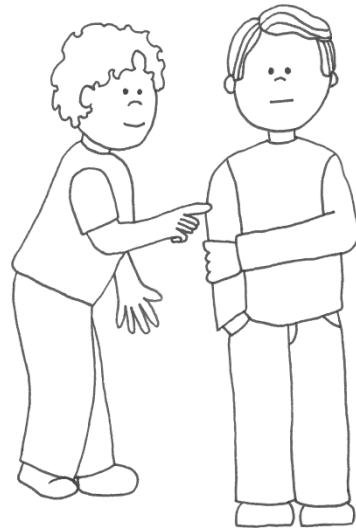

The students are dressing up like superheroes today, and Karen want to wear the pink cape. Another student gets to it first and puts it on.

This makes Karen feel angry. What should she do?

During story time Jason notices the new student sitting by himself looking sad. The class has been discussing 'super' behavior all week.

What should Jason do?

Joey wants to jump off the top of the jungle gym like a superhero. In a stern voice the teacher tells him, "Get down from there. It is not safe!"

This makes Joey feel embarrassed. What should he do?

