Dear Members,

I hope you all enjoyed a relaxing Thanksgiving with family and friends. It's always nice to take a step back from our hectic work schedules and reflect on how blessed we truly are!

As we head into December, for many of us that means preparation for Christmas and the festive season, closely followed by January and those New Year resolutions. In this edition I share with you an alternative advent tradition for health and wellbeing during December.

#SLPME TIME

December can be a busy and exhausting time of year in the schools. With winter weather and shorter days it's especially hard to fit in time for self-care.

I'm very guilty of being an all or nothing kind of person when it comes to exercise. If I can't fit in a good workout, I do nothing. 😞

This week I was given a reminder that even small amounts of exercise can be good for you. I'd love to share it with you in the hope that it might be an encouragement to you too!

Firstly, our local health care service is running a campaign for the month of December to coincide with Advent. Instead of the typical countdown calendar with chocolates or other treats, they are asking us to participate in a walking calendar. The idea being that we add a short walk to our day, before or after work or during lunchbreak. We total the extra steps and at the end of the month, recognize our achievement in taking steps towards health and wellbeing rather than over indulgence.

The additional benefit is of course that instead of the typical January New Year resolutions, you have taken a positive action every day during December and are ahead of the game!

NOTEBOOKERS SAY

"Parents who have worked with me for years appreciated the information these pages provided. Thank you for creating an easy way to communicate between home and school."

"Love the thematic component and that it's so easy to put together for so many of my pre-k students. Parents love them!"

"Everything I need in one place!"

"I have loved using the notebooks with a number of my kids. This is able to keep my kid's interests and makes working in groups so much more efficient."

We love to hear your feedback! Let our team know what you love and what you need, and we can make sure that each and every month in the Notebooks Club gives exactly what you need to do a great job!

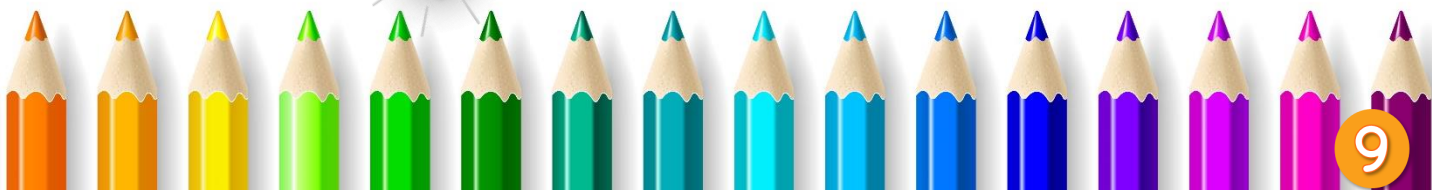

ACTIVITIES BY THEME

Select this category on the Home Page to easily find the materials you need to plan therapy around a theme.

Take a look through our selection of themed resources and select those that work best with your planning or perhaps with themes used by classroom teachers.

This month choose from popular themes such as Christmas, Dental Health, Dinosaurs, and more!

The diagram features three theme categories arranged horizontally. On the left is the 'CHRISTMAS' theme, represented by a box with a Santa Claus figure and a green label with a mouse cursor. In the center is the 'DINOSAURS' theme, represented by a box with a green dinosaur and a book with labels like 'dinosaur', 'volcano', and 'footprints', with an orange label below. On the right is the 'DENTAL' theme, represented by a box with a mouth and a book with labels like 'toothpaste', 'brushing', 'mouthwash', 'dentist', and 'dentist's chair', with a blue label below.
