

Preparing the Materials...

Print and laminate the color copy of the articulation cards.

The activities can be completed directly on the worksheet however I prefer to issue each student with a standard size notebook to keep all their completed work together.

Print a card pocket for each student. Have them glue this to the inside front cover of their notebook. This will be used to hold their own copy of the articulation cards. This pocket will be more durable if you print on cardstock.

