

Ideas for Targeting Basic Concepts

You can use the craftivity to work with your students who have goals for understanding and use of basic concepts. I find craft materials are ideally suited for teaching these targets in a practical way.

Choose your materials carefully to provide suitable items for discussion or sorting. For example, you may wish to include;

- Large and small buttons
- Long and short pencils
- Same and different colors

