

Activities to Target Verb Tense

It is easy to target verb tenses in conjunction with the craftivity.

A worksheet is included on the next page if you wish to make this a written task. You can also target verb tense as a verbal exchange during the activity. Examples of prompts are included below.

Future tense

Teacher Instruction: “Pretend you are going to make another of these items tomorrow. Tell me what you will do to make your craft.”

Student: “First I will gather my materials, then I will draw around the templates...” etc.

Past tense

Teacher Instruction: “Tell me what you did to make your craft.”

Student: “First I gathered my materials, then I drew around the templates...” etc.

Templates

Colored Cardstock

Pencil

Scissors

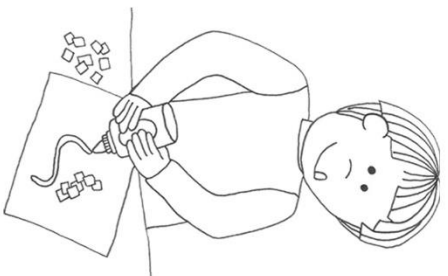

Glue

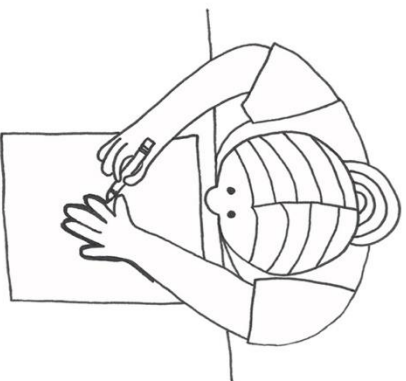

Craft Decorations

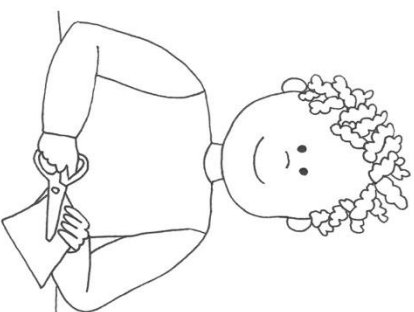

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>

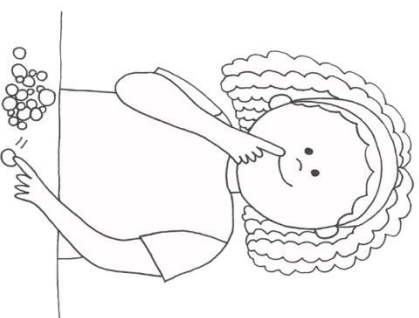

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>

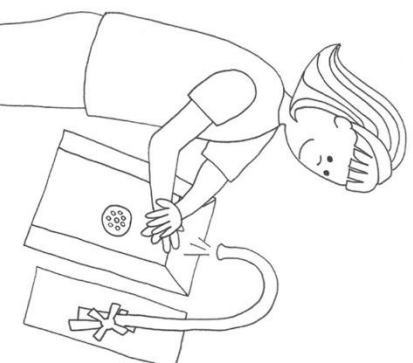

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>

<http://www.teachingtalking.com>